

You give them something to eat

At the end of a long hard day of teaching and meeting the needs of crowds of people, Jesus' disciples suggested he send the people home to get something to eat. Jesus turned to his disciples, and answered quite bluntly, "You give them something to eat."

His disciples were a bit shocked by the command, but looked around to see what they had. A small boy offered his food—five small barley loaves and two little fish. What good would this do? It wouldn't even make a dent in the problem at hand!

Jesus had plans that were bigger than the problem facing the disciples. He miraculously multiplied the bread and fish until everyone had enough to eat, and leftovers besides!

Jesus fed 5,000 families with five loaves of bread and two small fish. What can you do with what God has put in your hands? How can you give them something to eat?
